CONGRESSMAN DINGLEY ILL. Physicians Say There is Little Hope of

Washington, January 6.—The condition of Representative Nelson Dingley of Maine, who has been ill with pneumonia for almost a week, has undergone a marked change for the worse and tonight his physicians hold out little if any hope of recovery.

Much of the day the patient was delirious, and appeared to be uttering extracts from speeches he had made on the tariff question in from a long absence in the States. the House of Representatives. He "Every inch a man" is the title was conscious only when aroused. The physicians say there must be a radical change one way or the other very soon.

Collier Nero in San Francisco. The United States collier Nero arrived in port last night, thirtyseven days from Manila, says the Chronicle of Jan. 6. She encoun tered all kinds of weather, and the company on board now know all about both monsoons and typhoons, for the Nero encountered both. The Nero brought with her forty of the m n that helped Dawey on the Olympia when he made his Mayday procession which proved so fatal to the Spanish armada stationed in Manila bay. The Nero has proved herself a good seaboat, and in spite of the numerous forms of Neptune's attacks on her she arrived in port without a
